EXHIBITOR CONTRACT

Exhibitor agrees to abide by all applicable laws, ordinances and regulations pertaining to health, fire prevention, public safety, business licenses and sales tax permit.

All exhibits must be in-place and staffed no later than 9:30 am each day and remain staffed during all festival hours. Exhibitor may not dismantle booths before the end of public show hours. All exhibit structures and debris must be removed by exhibitor by 3:00 PM on the Monday following exhibitor's final weekend.

Exhibitor Agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Harmony Productions, it's directors, officers, sponsors, agents and employees from any and all claims, causes of action suits, damages, injuries and losses to any person or goods arising out of or connected in any way with the renting of space at Harmony at the Holidays.

The Producers will not be liable for refunds or any other liabilities, whatsoever, for the disruption of the Festival, due to reasons of enclosure, in which the Festival is to be produced, being before, or during the show, destroyed by fire, theft or other calamity, or by any act of God, public enemy, strikes, statutes, ordinances or any other cause beyond the Producer's control. Producer has the option to cancel or change the Festival at any time.

Exhibitor agrees to maintain dignity and integrity of the Festival. The promoters reserve the right to ask any exhibitor or employee, whom they feel is not acting in the best interest of the Festival, to leave without refund. We reserve the right to deny sale of items that have not been listed on the application. Exhibitor agrees to allow photographs and video to be taken of his or her booth and products, to be used for future promotional purposes. Exhibitor agrees to keep all display and selling activity within the assigned booth space(s).

It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to read the acceptance letter and understand its content.

I, the Exhibitor, understand and agree to all conditions of this contract.
